The
SHENANDOAH

1932

Published in honor of

THE SENIOR CLASS

of the

Shenandoah High School

FOREWORD

Since the days of primitive man music has been a great influence in soothing stormy and bitter passions, in elevating thought and in arousing true sympathy. The first Christmas was ushered in with a symphony of peace and good will, echoing from the Judean Hillsides.

In recognition of the power of music to refine and develop man's better nature, we have selected this as the art theme of our 1932 year book.

We trust that from its pages a song of hope and good cheer may ring on down through the coming years.

DEDICATION

To

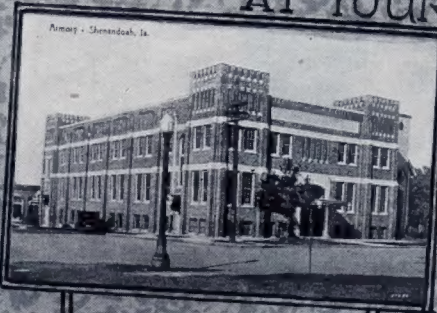

Superintendent W. Dean McKee

Efficient, friendly in administrative affairs, personally interested in the welfare of the students, and ever encouraging and sponsoring the development of musical talents and appreciation, we affectionately dedicate this 1932 year book.

REPRESENTATIVE SENIORS

With the selection of a representative girl and boy from the senior class, the faculty of Shenandoah high school is privileged to recognize achievement not only in several different fields but in character and personality as well. Participation in extra-curricular activity, commendable scholastic record, fineness of character and generosity toward one's fellow-students are only a few of the factors entering into the personalities of those students whom we wish to call "representative."

Among many truly representative students of Shenandoah high school, Mary Frances Nye and Robert Leacox were chosen to share the honors for 1932. An honor student, Mary Frances has a record of distinguished participation in dramatic, girl reserve, journalism, and glee club activities. She has filled many offices modestly and efficiently. Student elections have repeatedly attested the same degree of campus admiration and popularity which the faculty has recognized. Athletics, notably, stellar basketball, football, and golf, have claimed much of Bob's attention and have accounted for many of his successes throughout his entire four years; but Bob earns his right to represent the high school in other fields as well. In glee club, quartet, and solo work he has been an outstanding figure, and he, too, has filled many class offices with steadiness and responsibility. For the third consecutive year, now, the title of representative student has been bestowed upon these two, a repetition of the honor, bearing witness to that most sterling quality of all, the ability to succeed graciously.

CLASS SPONSORS

MISS GAMBLE

The Seniors feel very fortunate in having Miss Gamble as one of their advisors. She has acted as our co-pilot throughout the year.

She has greatly aided in making our Senior year a striking success and one never to be forgotten.

MR. REYNARD

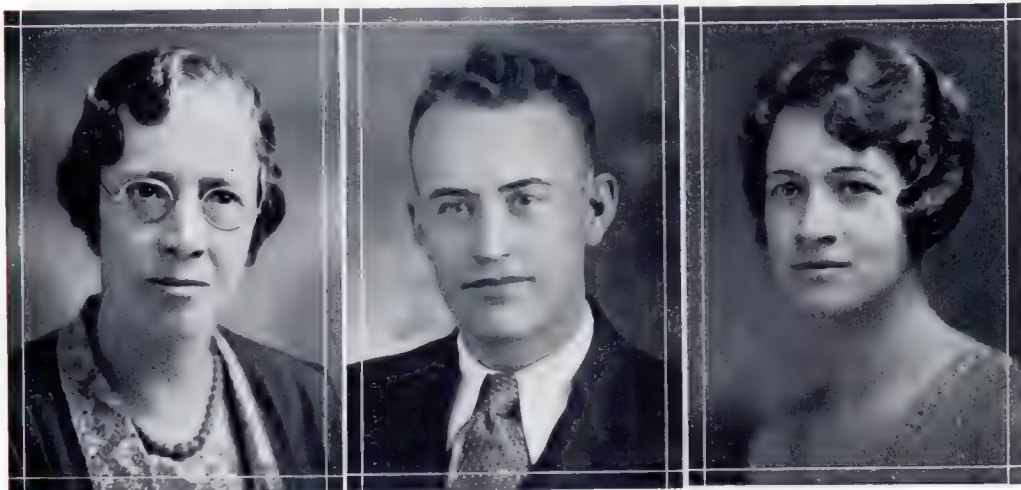

Mr. Reynard was chosen to help guide the Seniors during their last year in High School. He has filled this position in an excellent manner.

We wish to take this opportunity in expressing our appreciation for his help in making this year a happy one.

MISS SIMONS

One of our most capable advisors was Miss Simons. She was doubly equal to that position because she had attended this high school and graduated from it.

We thank her for her many helpful suggestions and appreciate her understanding.

CLASS OF '32

The Class of '32 has completed all four spaces on the staff of high school education—Faithful Freshmen, Agreeable Sophomores, Conscientious Juniors, and Efficient Seniors—and are leaving behind scholastic records and other achievements to serve as an inspiration for oncoming classes.

The Class of '32 has entered into all lines of curricular activity and through its untiring efforts has given school life a more cheerful tone. Throughout its four years in high school, the class has been well represented in all activities and have done a great deal to win trophies and honors.

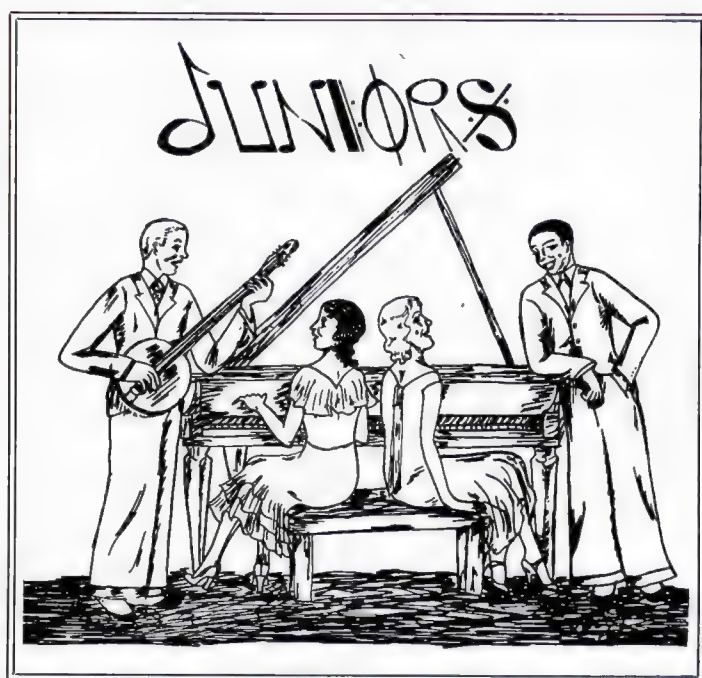

Four seniors were largely responsible for this year's series of football victories, while three have helped assure for us the championship in basketball.

One member of our class has been a member of the dramatic club for four years and a great number have also taken active parts in plays, declamatory, debate, and journalism.

In the musical organizations we were fortunate in having a trumpet soloist, a marimba soloist, three members in the stringed quartet, and a great number in the Glee Club, Orchestra and Band.

This class, under the guiding hands of three capable class advisors, have been leaders and co-workers with the under classmen. We have worked hard to reach the top of the staff and hope that the standards we have held aloft will be born with honor and credit by the procession of classes that will follow us.

Top Row—Noble, B. Ross, Briggs, J. Ryan, F. Lorimor, M. Edgerton, Steel, Parsons, W. Martin, Stevens, Haberland, Haskell, Hiatt, E. Rulon, Jones, K. Holmes.

What a class—students, athletes, dramatists, musicians, journalists—and what have you? In every line of curricular activities you find a Junior always smiling and ready to do his share.

We are represented in Glee Club by a large number of girls and are proud of our three soloists.

What kind of a football and basketball team would Shenandoah have had this year without the Juniors? Think of the pep that's in the Pep Club because of the Junior girls. Are we proud of them? Well, I'll say!

In Declamatory it was none other than the Juniors that climbed to the top, not to mention the many other achievements of the other members of the class.

After the publication of this splendid book, which was made such a howling success largely because of the Juniors, and the Junior-Senior Banquet, sponsored by the Juniors, who wouldn't say that it was not the most enthusiastic and capable class in school?

Top Row—Purcell, F. Moore, Cherny, Maxwell, Maine, Danielson, Rydberg, Tyler, Strom, Smoke, Cunningham, Bright, Baker, Bertram, Franks.
Second Row—Howard, Burke, Loudon, Petersen, McQueen, D. Maranville, McDermott, Galloway, Currier, Beck, Kendall, Mielke, H. Norton, Brush, Fletcher.

JUNIORS

So industrious, earning money,
Always working, never down,
To entertain departing Seniors,
In a fashion done up brown.

—D. Hurd

JUNIOR CODE

Joyful Juniors, full of pep
Old man gloom, we'll get you yet.

Unified, we stand as one
Each evil thought with scorn we shun.

Naughty Juniors? not so bad
Just enough—an arresting fad.

Industrious Juniors, go we must
We shed our coats, you watch our dust.

Overcoming, that's our duty
Vanish, Grime and Presto, Beauty!

Reserved in mind and true in thought
This is the motto we've searched and caught.

Sincerely yours is our complimentary close
We make all friends, but never a foe.

Pep! Sincerity! Ability! That's the Sophomore class all over. With our two peppy advisors everything has gone over with a bang!

We have seven members in the orchestra, ten in the band, several in glee club, several on the Shen-Hi-Can staff and one on the annual staff. Henrietta Beach and Frances Long are our representatives in the Pep Club and Margaret Mattox has been outstanding in dramatics. We are very proud of our two "S" men, Marvin Good and Philip Keltner who have reached high standards in athletics. There are more Sophomore girls who are Girl Reserves than in any other class and a large number of G. A. A. members. Many of our boys belong to Boys' Club too.

Henrietta Beach and Martha Stealy were in the all-school play and now Henrietta is a Thespian.

We have scored many honors this year but after we have finished Geometry we intend to soar to unlimited heights. All in all—what a class!

Top Row—Mr. Bath, Castle, Peck, Herold, Collins, Maddex, Long, Lewis, Stanley, Bonwell, Forbes, Smith, Morhain, Keltner.

SOPH'S VIEWPOINT

Seniors think we're weak and childish,
But crises will find us strong,
We'll laugh away life's various knocks
And fight against a wrong.
We'll stick together thru thick and thin,
And never forget to smile,
We'll fight our battles side by side,
And do the things worth while.

Juniors think we're green and vain,
But we'll show them that they're wrong,
We'll study hard and do our best,
And sing a cheery song.
We'll do the simple things of life,
And show our skill and grit,
We'll take the things life offers us,
And try to make them fit.

Freshmen think we're smart and grand,
So we'll try to merit this view,
We'll show our patience with trying things,
And tasks we have to do,
We'll have a word of friendship,
For all we chance to meet,
We'll have the other classmen saying,
"Aren't the Sophomores neat?"

The Freshmen are a most outstanding group of students as shown by the way they enthusiastically jumped into activities at the first of the year. They are the largest class that has ever entered the doors of our alma mater and would it be egotistical to say the smartest?

They have sixteen members in the band, six in the orchestra, a majority in the Glee Club many in G. A. A., Y. W. C. A., Boys' Club, and Miss Swain's "Tea Parties." They furnish plenty of pep at the football and basketball games and we eagerly await their chapel. They have several journalists who are on the Shen-Hi-Can staff and one on the annual staff.

When this class grows up to be seniors I know we shall be glad that we attended school with them.

THE FRESHMEN

Although tradition says they're green,
In fact they're all true blue.
They're very quick to imitate
Just what the Seniors do.
But should you dare to call them "dumb"
Your Words you'd quickly rue.
Would they tell you? Well yes, some.
Would you blame them if they do?

NUGGETS

Judge: Now I don't expect to see you here again.

Abby: You're not going to resign your job, are you, judge?

Eldon P.: I hear they are going to make the class periods ten minutes shorter next semester.

Bob C.: That won't do. We're not getting enough sleep as it is.

Louise F.: How much is a twenty-five cent book of stamps.

Helen C.: Are you Hungary?

Kat H.: Yes, Siam.

Helen: Den Russia to the table and I'll Fiji.

Kat: All right. Sweden my coffee and Denmark my bill.

DEATH OF THE CLASSMEN

Senior—

Deep wisdom, swelled head.
Brain fever. He's dead.

Junior—

Fair one, hope's fled,
Heart's broken. He's dead.

Sophomore—

Went skating, bumped head,
Cracked skull. He's dead.

Freshman—

Milk famine, not fed,
Starvation, He's dead.

LAMONT'S PRAYER

Now I lay me down to sleep,
I haven't studied for a week,
If I should die before I wake,
What difference would it ever make?

Miss Taylor: Please follow the work on the board.

Chas Yates: Where is it going?

Of all the sad works, the saddest are:

"Teacher sick, no class."

Mr. Galt: "Do you have gum in your mouth, Woodrow?"

Woody C.: "No."

Mr. Galt: "What is it you have in your mouth then?"

Woody: "It's only a substitute."

Mr. Galt: "What is your substitute?"

Woody: "My eraser."

BOYS' CLUB

The Boys' Club has enjoyed a profitable year. Many practical problems of vital interest to the H. S. boy were discussed. With no regular place in the schedule for our meetings, it has required keen interest for the members to get around for the 8 o'clock sessions. To spice up the program social affairs were worked in, the first of which was a water melon feed given especially for the Freshmen boys.

Just after Xmas another party was given which might have been an initiation except that the new members outnumbered the old. Cyril Nissen on the refreshment committee drafted some of his girl friends as cooks. We participated in two Conferences during the year. Robert Ross and Eldon Pierson accompanied by Mr. Pettigrew attended a leadership conference in Council Bluffs, the last of October and Wilfred Berk, Ralph Davis, Robert Patience, Robert Read and Hobart Spears with Mr. Galt were in attendance at the Older Boys' Conference in Omaha just before Christmas. The club works for a well rounded personality development and extends a welcome to all H. S. boys to co-operate.

Together let us be,
For He, who is our Master
The Man of Men was He."

ANNUAL STAFF

The group which has given you this year book has worked hard and faithfully to make it better than ever before. They have fought against many odds with fortune seemingly against them.

But lo! They have conquered and herewith present this annual for your approval. The art staff have tried to introduce new ideas and the feature writers and others have worked for originality. In truth, in keeping with our motif, one may truly say that the staff have worked in symphony and have tried to present true artistry.

It truly belongs to the Seniors this year and is the memorial for their class which they are leaving with the school. We have striven to make it a fitting one, and enduring evidence of their loyalty and support.

THE SHEN-HI-CAN STAFF

Depression! Oh, a thousands pardons, have you heard that word before, this year, But there is no depression according to the members of the Shen-Hi-Can staff. Indeed on analyzing the situation and considering the successful year just completed there is no reason why they should be depressed.

Once again a girl conquers, a girl has made our paper, "The Shen-Hi-Can", a success for this year. The credit goes to Mary Frances Nye. Mary, it will be admitted had good material, but it takes someone with true ability to organize and supervise the work. Also a great deal of the credit for the success of the paper goes to Mr. Galt, who directs and advises the staff.

In conjunction with the Shen-Hi-Can is the International Honorary Society of High-school Journalists, the Quill and Scroll. Seven people have been initiated into this society this year.

Depression? Well, I should say not!

ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra has enjoyed a very successful and practical year. It has been somewhat smaller this year but it is mainly made up of players who had experience last year.

Last summer Miss Mary Elizabeth Perry gave up part of her vacation to stay and direct the Orchestra. Much time was spent in practicing the Egyptian Ballet and other difficult pieces, and as a result the Orchestra has played music of a very high grade this year. They have presented numbers of this type before each of the plays this year.

It is believed that the Orchestra has the best chance in years to go to the state contest, as the judging this year was on the quality of music with little regard being paid to size or orchestration. There was little competition among the instrumental soloists in the home contest this year, but quite a variety of instruments was represented.

Especial commendation should be given the string quartet composed of Eloise Redfield, Betty Burke, Marie Henderson, Dorothy Hurd and Helen Currier. They organized early in the fall and have entertained very often during the year.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Under the capable direction of Miss Freda Hahn, the Girls' Glee Club has had a very successful year. The girls have worked diligently on the music contest numbers including the daily personal practices.

The club has given several performances this year. At the first of the year a number of the members of the club sang hymns for the Sunday School Parade. Before Christmas the Glee Club contributed their share to a Christmas program given by the musical organizations of the high school. A double sextette also sang in this program. This club has given a zest to the musical activities of the school and its aim is to sponsor a more general interest in music.

This group placed second in the District Music Contest held in Shenandoah.

OUR S. H. S. BAND

Much interest and enthusiasm has been manifested in the Band the past year with a larger personnel than ever before. From the membership of the band were organized a chamber group of brass instruments and chamber group of woodwind instruments which ranked first at Sub-District Contest. Merle Strom, Euphonium soloist of the band won first place in both Sub-District and District Contests and will compete at the State Music Festival. The Band placed first in Class A Marching Bands at the District Contest.

HIGH SCHOOL SPECIALTIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

Membership

Seniors	Sophomores
Frank Bauer	James Oldfield
Gladys Stirk	Helen Hatch
Juniors	Freshmen
Eugene Shumate	Brammer Leacox
Miriam Miller	Frances May

These Students have greatly aided Principal Guernsey in maintaining satisfactory school policies and keeping the High School boat on an even keel.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Torch and Scroll, the National Honor Society represents high scholastic standing and the maintenance of worthy traditions in our school.

QUILL AND SCROLL

This group comprises the local chapter of the International High School Journalistic Society, who are setting higher standards of Journalism around the World. Eugene Shumate and Virginia Yates are members not in this picture.

G. A. A. CABINET

These girls with Miss Harrold as leader have largely been responsible for the interesting program of sports enjoyed by the peppy girls of our high School. They have furnished good natured rivalry and fun a plenty for the fair sex.

S. H. S. DEBATERS

When these people start talking, you just as well detour, for they are pretty sure to get the best of the Argument. Our debate team had a very good season under the Supervision of Coach Wilbur Pettigrew.

THESPIANS

The Thespian Club is a national dramatic society organized for the purpose of developing the dramatic talent of the school. The first play of the year was a Girl Reserve play, "Old Lady 31", under the direction of Miss Lurline Bell which was presented with much success. The club gave a play of its own "The Thirteenth Chair," a mystery play, directed by Miss Katherine Simons, after which a number of members were considered eligible for the club. The membership then leaped from fourteen to twenty-eight. To keep up the enthusiasm of the club, monthly meetings are held at the homes of the members. The club is under the capable supervision of Miss Katherine Simons.

“S” CLUB

The “S” club is an athletic club which was organized in 1920 by Coach Paul Bender. The membership consists of men who have won letters by representing Shenandoah High School in football, basketball and track.

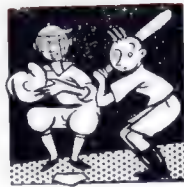

The “S” Club lost many of its active members by graduation. The membership was increased this term when letters were awarded to eighteen football men and ten basketball men.

The aim of the “S” Club members is to promote Shenandoah spirit and true sportsmanship. The first interest in athletics taken by the boys entering high school is in large measure due to the spirit shown by the “S” Club members.

Two recent outstanding social events of the “S” Club were the annual picnic in the State Park at Hamburg, Iowa and the party at the Shenandoah Country Club. The principal object of these events was to initiate the new eligible men.

The requirements for membership are very high. A boy must be loyal, cooperative, a good sport, a good student and he must keep physically fit. Boys who are eligible for membership must have the recommendations of the coaches and a majority of the votes of all the members before he may be awarded a letter and initiated into the “S” Club.

The officers for this year were: Ted Briggs, President; Evard Taylor, Vice-President; and Paul Sullivan, Secretary and Treasurer.

OUR SEASON'S RECORD

Coaches R. B. Glover and H. A. Bath called practice on September first. Around fifty-five men reported and were issued equipment. The squad consisted of ten letter men, namely, Captain Briggs, Abercrombie, Vance, Tyler, Arnold, Leacox, Taylor, Rulon, Graham and Good. The first two weeks were largely spent in getting in condition and learning the fundamentals of the game, mixed with new formations. The team was very strong defensively and was noted for its passing attack. The team won all games except the Creston game. In this game the score does not indicate the closeness of the contest, as the game was in doubt until the last few minutes. Clarinda and Hamburg were tied in close games. Men receiving letters for their work throughout the season were Captain Briggs, Abercrombie, Vance, Tyler, Leacox, Taylor, Graham, Good, Mullison, Keltner, Captain-elect Smoke, Kaserman and Moore.

SCORES AND GAMES

COLLEGE SPRINGS 0—SHENANDOAH 60

The Mustangs, opening their season with College Springs, had an easy victory. The regulars ran up a good score in the first half and the remainder of the game was played by the substitutes.

BEDFORD 6—SHENANDOAH 12

With four members of the team gone to the "Cow War" the outlook for this game was bad for the local team. Bedford scored first and held the locals to a tie at the half but was not successful in holding the fighting Mustangs the last half. A long pass brought the game to a close.

HAMBURG 7—SHENANDOAH 7

After a few years vacation the Hamburg and Shenandoah elevens again played. Shenandoah threatened to score several times but lacked the necessary punch. After trying for three quarters the Mustangs hit their stride and tied the score in the last quarter.

VILLISCA 6—SHENANDOAH 28

Villisca, the first conference team on the schedule, was played on a muddy field, which seemed to hold down the scoring column. Although Villisca displayed a good one-man team, they could not keep up with the heavier Mustangs.

ATLANTIC 6—SHENANDOAH 53

The Mustangs soon ran up a score of 53 to 0 on the smaller Atlantic team. The Shenandoah seconds took up the battle at the half and allowed Atlantic to make their one score.

CLARINDA 7—SHENANDOAH 7

The annual battle between the bitter rivals, Clarinda and Shenandoah, ended in a tie, Clarinda having made the first score. The outlook was dark for the Mustangs but Leacox caught a pass and ran over for a touchdown. The extra point evened the score.

ADEL 0—SHENANDOAH 58

Adel was not a scheduled game, but was played for practice. It proved to be a scrimmage for the most part for the seconds.

RED OAK 0—SHENANDOAH 13

The Armistice game, being played in mud and rain, gave little chance for either side to run up a score. Both teams were well supported in spite of the rain.

CRESTON 21—SHENANDOAH 6

Shenandoah, for the first time in eight years, was defeated on its own field. Shenandoah, being the first to score with a long pass, things looked promising for the day but Haltom and Sadler with their end runs and line plunges respectively soon cinched their victory.

MO. VALLEY 0—SHENANDOAH 33

This game was the last in the high school careers of Captain Briggs, Leacox, Taylor, Vance, Graham and Abercrombie. The game was played on Thanksgiving. Mo. Valley is another of our traditional rivals who invades our field on this date.

Although the season was marred by one defeat and two ties, the team thinks that it has upheld the Shenandoah tradition to a large extent. Injuries were very few this year and the team was always at its full strength except in the Bedford game when five first-team players were ordered to Tipton for the cattle war. The squad was feted at three banquets at the end of the season, all of which were deeply appreciated.

Top Row—Stenger, Rydberg, Beck, Mullison.
Second Row—Coach Glover, Smoke, Briggs, Van Sant, Taylor, Kaserman, Coach Bath.
Seated—Forsythe, Sullivan, Leacox, Graham, Rulon, Good, Shumate.

BASKETBALL

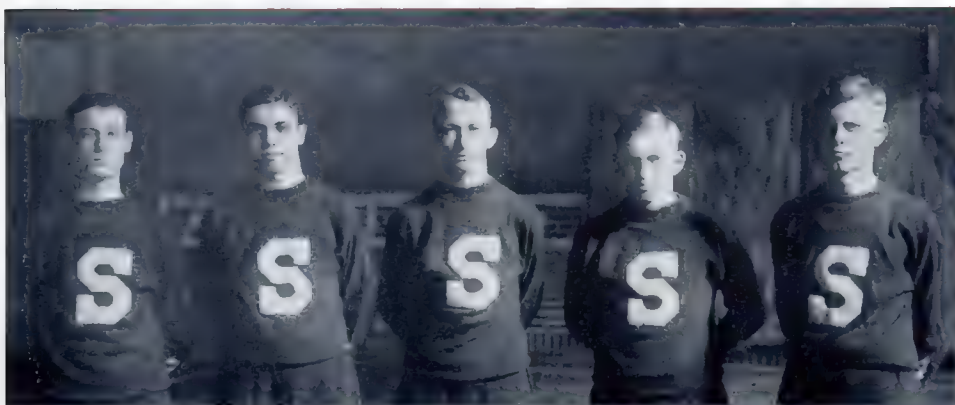

The Mustangs, opening the season with a conference championship to protect, had their hands full.

However with five letter men back, the prospects for another championship looked good. The Mustangs were sliding along very nicely until the freak game with Clarinda. Clarinda stalled for about three quarters, and played ball only part time in the final quarter with the result that they nosed out the Mustangs to a 7 to 9 defeat. This defeat, however was the only one in the regular schedule.

At the sectional tournament held in Red Oak the Mustangs seemed to have things much their own way. They played Corning in the first round with an easy victory of 40 to 3. They met Red Oak in the finals with a victory of 37 to 23.

At the district tournament the going didn't prove to be so smooth. Shenandoah drew Harlan in the first round and came thru with a victory of 39 to 24. Thinking that Harlan had the toughest team at the tournament, the Mustangs thought the championship a cinch after defeating them, but it was not as easy as they had thought. Abe Lincoln applied the wet blanket to the tune of 26 to 22.

All in all, however, we have a seasons' record of which we are justly proud.

HAWKEYE SIX CHAMPIONS

CAPT.-ELECT WALTER RULON—Forward

Plays a cool, fast game. Noted for guarding "hot shots" efficiently. Will have played four years at right forward next year.

PAUL SULLIVAN—Forward

Playing first year as a regular he showed up like a veteran. Plays a flashy, hard driving game. Scoring ability pulled Mustangs out of a good many hard games.

ROBERT LEACOX—Center

Excellent pivot man with a very accurate eye for the basket. Leading scorer of conference. Showed up well enough in District meet to win a position as center on the Second All-State team.

CAPT. ROBERT GRAHAM—Guard

This season made his fourth year as guard. Known and feared by all the teams in this section. Was given guard position on Fourth All-State team.

MARVIN "RED" GOOD—Guard

Our red headed sophomore guard. Playing first year as guard. Second year on the team. Developed into one of the smoothest guards in the conference. Noted for the way he took them off the backboard.

TRACK

Because of the Annual being printed before track season was over last year, we are reporting last season's records.

The first meet of the year was held at Tarkio. The Mustangs placed third, which was a good average since there were so many schools represented.

The Council Bluffs Relays brought fair success for the Mustangs, since they placed first in the half and mile relays. They also took second in the meet.

The Drake Relays and the Amity track meet both being held the same date, Shenandoah was undecided as to which they would attend. As luck would have it, it rained and the Amity track meet was postponed for a week, making it possible for the Mustangs to attend both meets. Shenandoah won the Amity meet.

The Hawkeye Six Track Meet held in Creston was won by Creston, but the Mustangs gave them a close race, coming in with a high second. All events were records that day, because it was the first Hawkeye Six meet ever held.

The Mustangs also won the District Meet held in Council Bluffs.

When this year's call was issued about forty boys reported to the coaches. We are hoping that the talent in this group can soon be developed, so that their performance will equal or surpass that of our track stars of former years.

TENNIS

While tennis is not a major sport in the school we have had a dozen players who have made an excellent showing on the courts. The boys have not quite kept up the pace the last two seasons that was shown by our team two years ago. However we are justly proud of the Brink sisters Merna and Mildred who have for two years cinched the Ladies' doubles at Tarkio Tri-State. Merna also took the honors in Singles last year.

GOLF

As our 1932 Golf season opens we find that we have a Hawkeye Six Trophy to protect. Although there are not many that take an interest in Golf, we are able to find enough to have a winning team.

Last year's Hawkeye Six Champions, Robert Leacox and Elver Hyde, are swinging the clubs to get in shape for another championship season.

Although there is never a regular schedule filed, we usually have battles with Clarinda and Red Oak. The Hawkeye Six Golf tournament will be held in Red Oak, April 30th.

G. A. A.

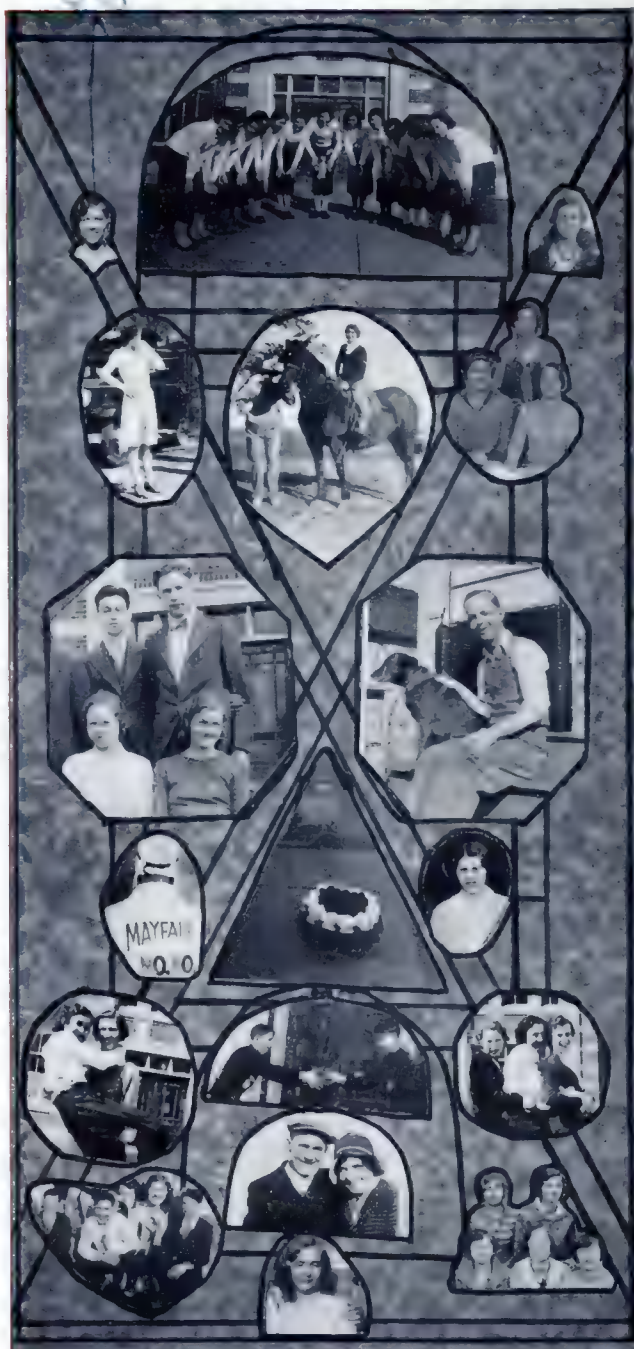

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized eight years ago by Miss Awilda de Jong. Hiking and basketball were main interests. The work of the club in fostering interest in athletics, increasing physical efficiency, and developing a higher degree of sportsmanship and school and class spirit was continued the next four years by Miss Ruth Huber. Captainball, volleyball, and baseball were popularized and soccer was reorganized under the direction of Miss Nellie Harrold who has had charge of the Association the last three years.

Under Miss Harrold's exacting supervision the various sports have been developed and a new game, quoits or deck tennis was introduced for the beginning of the year. Under the new system, points are awarded for quoits, captainball, volleyball, baseball, tennis, and hiking. Over one hundred girls participated in G. A. A. practices after school in class groups. Captains and sport managers chose outstanding players for the teams and inter-class tournaments were held in each sport; the Juniors have proved themselves champions thus far. Following quoits, the traditional initiation of members who had earned 100 points, took place in November. The surviving victims were duly admitted into the organization which has a membership of sixty-seven this year.

If you think you're a beater
—you are;
If you think you dare not,
you don't.
If you want to win, but you think you can't,
It's ten to one you won't.
If you think you'll lose—
you've lost;
For in this world you'll find
Success begins with a dominant will
And an optimistic mind.
Life's battles don't always go
To the faster, stronger man,
No indeed, but rather, the man
Who wins is the man who thinks he can

RECIPE FOR CAR SMASHING

Ingredients:

- 1 perfectly good car
- 1 green driver
- 1 back seat driver
- 1 road
- 1 telephone pole (a steep bank will do)
- 2 hospital cots

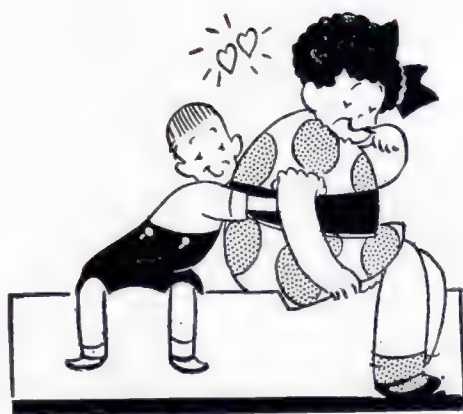

Directions:

Carefully place a green
driver behind the steering wheel, and a back-seat driver with arms folded across the front seat.

Scatter pigs over the road with telephone pole conveniently near.

When the back seat driver begins giving orders, prepare hospital cots. Wrap drivers tightly with white strips of cloth for two months.

Send car to junk shop,
(you can do as you please with pigs and telephone pole).

DISMISSAL HOUR

(With Apologies to Longfellow)
Between the dark and daylight
As the night is beginning to lower,
Comes a rush from the day's occupation
Which is known as dismissal hour.

I hear in the corridor above me
The thunder of students' feet,
The sound of many doors opening
And the sighs, not so soft and sweet.

We get our wraps and luggage
And descend the broad hall stairs.
We're surely "fed up" on all our books
And we have no patience to spare.

A shout and then a silence,
For we know by the teacher's eyes
That if we're not still, detention
Will catch us in its ties.

We cut across the campus,
To some waiting car or bike,
Or if we are not so lucky,
We start down the walk on a hike.

But don't think, O ye faculty members,
That your guidance we do not implore
For as we think it over,
We appreciate it more and more.

We may say that we wish the building
Would burn clear down to the ground,
And that from its walls we should never again
Have a chance to hear a sound.

Yet in truth we could never mean it.
No, our memories will never depart,
How we spent these years here together
Their spirit remains in our heart.

—Robert Patience

THE SOPHOMORES

With Geometry they're weighed down
Math classes after four.
Such is the sad existence
Of a lowly sophomore.
But if there were no "sophies"
Life would be a bore.
They furnish sport for everyone
And are fun right to the core.

THE YEAR IN JUNIOR HIGH

The Junior High has spent a busy year, each student trying to get his foot up on a higher round of the educational ladder.

The most outstanding event of the year was the Operetta, The Toy-maker, given by a promising array of talent as you will see.

These entertainments have been under the able direction of Miss Mary Elizabeth Perry.

The Eighth grade presents a Cantata each year as a part of its graduation exercises. This year the Cantata will be "Evangeline". Music by Noble Cain. Every member of the eighth grade participates in its presentation.

We must not forget the future Grid stars who worked out diligently on the back lot of the school grounds, under the tutelage of Prof. Wykoff and Coach Dean Omans. Such tackling of the Dummy and blocking is seldom seen, outside of Notre Dame and other great coaching centers. Laying all jokes aside there was evidence that these youngsters will do themselves proud in a few more years when they carry the honors of S. H. S. with them on the field. Had not the depression limited our funds we would have put a picture of these future warriors in our book.

POPULAR ENTERTAINERS 1931-32

DOUBTFUL DISCORDS

There was a tutor named Gamble,
With an innate desire to ramble;
She followed the team
With pep and steam,
In her Ford with entire ensemble.

We all know a teacher named Keenan,
Of whose subjects you must get a gleanin',
Or else she will say,
"Four o'clock today!"
And then you will gather her meanin'.

There was a prof. named Wycoff,
Who often said, "Why cough?
Just take medicine,
Ag'in and Ag'in;
That's how I cured my cough."

There was a P. T. instructor,
Who was an M. T. constructor.
He pulled people's ears
And gave awful leers,
(He should have been a conductor!)

A jinx to each laggard pupil
Is she, formerly known as Ubil;
But though her name
Is not now the same
She still makes you cram your "noodle."

—John Gough

LIFE'S LITTLE TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS

THESE GIRLS!

Two merry eyes looked into mine
My heart went all a-flutter
My heart was melted in a trice
As soft as peanut butter.

Two forlorn eyes looked into mine
I quickly offered aid
But what those eyes have done to me
Oh me—I'm most afraid.

Two wistful eyes looked into mine
Like violets drenched in rain.
How could I wonder at their appeal
Or that glance of heart-felt pain?

Two scornful eyes looked into mine
And measured me in a trice
Nor did I miss their cruel disdain
I'm off the girls for life.
—Madge Nadgewick

No, this isn't Billy Sunday
I fear you've missed your guess
It's only "Franky" Bauer
Delivering his address.

Kenneth Riggle's always late
Wherever he does go;
He got there once on time, 'tis said:
But the clock was three hours slow.

"MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING"

(A Parody)

You buy some gum to make your jaw go
How brave you feel to break the law so
You chew and chew with mighty power
What happens then?—You stay an hour

You buy a pencil, costs a quarter
To last a month you're sure it orter
Up in S. Hall one hears your ravings
What happens then?—It's turned to shavings.

You pay a lad to buy your candy
You think for dances he'll come handy
You strut with him around the town
What happens then?—He turns you down.

You find a girl who's sweet as honey
On her you spend your hard-earned money
You plan to take her to the prom
What happens then?—She goes with Tom.

On home room stunts you struggle nightly
Oh, yes, you think, she'll treat you rightly
You climb the stairs all full of zest
What happens then?—She gives a test.

And now, dear pupils, lest I bore you
I'll end these verses I've made for you
I could write on—What do you think?
What happened then?—Who threw that ink?

—By G. Inman

SENIOR'S FAREWELL

(With apologies to Mark Anthony)

Friends, Faculty and Freshman, lend me your ears,
We come to veneer the seniors, not to varnish them;
The egotism of the seniors lives after them;
But their virtues are incased in the hall of fame.
Their teachers have told us they are ambitious,
If it were so we have never discovered it,
And imperfectly have they proved it.
Here with permission of the Juniors and the rest,
For the Juniors are giving the banquet,
We sing our little requiem, and tell of their illustrious deeds,
Even though, often, friendless, unfaithful and unjust to us.
Their teachers say they were ambitious
But, STILL they have failed to prove it.
They were given many detentions,
And often, were they called upon the carpet.
Do these things show ambition?
When the Juniors were broke, the seniors laughed.
Seniors should show a more noble spirit.
You should have seen how sneaking they were, one day.
Would this be deemed courageous?
We think their teachers meant to say they were rebellious.
Now if this be taken as their main intent,
We would then agree with the honorable faculty.
Our estimate of the seniors is not without its cause.
What should withhold us, then, from ousting them.
Our judgment is that their position, now, too long they've held.
Their vacancy, we will with growing honor fill.
